

Picking Up the Pieces

A Sharing Circle for the Newly Bereaved

Dorothy Ley Hospice
220 Sherway Drive
Etobicoke

This is a gathering time for bereaved individuals and families, which provides information on the grief process and allows for an opportunity to share - or just listen - with others who have also experienced a loss.

Meetings held weekly

Thursdays

from 10 - 11:30 am

Picking Up the Pieces is a mixed loss ongoing support circle welcoming anyone grieving the death of someone significant.

Registration required and limited to 12 individuals per session.

